A Psalm for The First Sunday of Advent, Psalm 80. 1-8, 18-20

Refrain:

Turn us again, O God; show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, you that led Joseph like a flock;

Shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim, before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.

Stir up your mighty strength and come to our salvation. [R]

O Lord God of hosts, how long will you be angry at your people's prayer?

You feed them with the bread of tears;

you give them abundance of tears to drink.

You have made us the derision of our neighbours,

and our enemies laugh us to scorn. [R]

Let your hand be upon the man at your right hand,

the son of man you made so strong for yourself.

And so will we not go back from you;

give us life, and we shall call upon your name. [R]

*Faithful shepherd of your people,
as we look for the light of your countenance,
restore in us the image of your glory
and graft us into the risen life of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Sunday 29th November 2020 First Sunday of Advent

Collect for The First Sunday of Advent

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility; that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Gospel for The First Sunday of Advent, Mark 13. 24-end

'But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in clouds" with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.'

An anthem for today

You might like to listen to and and join in with the Taize prayer Wait for the Lord:

Wait for the Lord, whose day is near; Wait for the Lord, keep watch, take heart!

In these times when it's not feasible for the Junior Church to meet we've created a few children's resources for families to share together on Sundays –

- There's a printable sheet on our website which offers a prayer and activities that will help young people get to know the person of Jesus. This week's is based on today's Gospel reading from Mark.

- You might also like to share in this week's Godly Story, 'Stay awake in your heart', also from Mark 13. 24-37. It's a fantastic visual version of the scriptures, with wondering questions for families to talk about together. Find the video on YouTube here.

We've made some changes to our Children and Young People page on our website too! Do have a look and explore the links: there are lots of fun things including craft activity templates, quizzes and a video made by our Youth Group. We've introduced an Advent theme this week, with lots of resources, including some from our Diocese of St Albans at thehopeofchristmas.co.uk .

Newsletter and Notices

NHS Test and Trace App – Anyone who downloads the NHS Covid-19 app onto their phone can scan the code when they arrive at Church for prayer, and the app on their phone then remembers that they have visited the Church (data deleted after 21 days). You might prefer this option, or to complete the paper form (or do neither).

Participation at Advent services, in Church and via Zoom from 2nd December – It's good to share the leading of our services between a range of voices. If anyone else would like to volunteer to participate in services – reading, praying, etc., do please let us know.

If you'd like the Prayer Chain to pray for some concern which is on your heart, please make your prayer request to the coordinator, Diane Pettitt: 461845. Requests are strictly confidential to the Prayer Chain, who will simply pray as asked and a request won't lead to further contact or action.

The Bells Appeal needs your nomination! – Ecclesiastical will be donating a total of £120,000 to 120 charities over 12 days in December and we'd love to be one of them. £1,000 will bring us closer to our target of £280,000 to refurbish the historic bells at our Church, to help safeguard a long tradition of church bells ringing out to call worshippers to church for future generations. Do see the Bells page on our website for more details.

Congregation E-Christmas Card – This year, although we can't have our usual Giant Card on display, we offer the opportunity to send Christmas greetings to friends via our website and you might still like to contribute to The Children's Society. Instead of sending individual good wishes, email your greeting to alanandpat@lineone.net. Each week you'll be able to see everyone's greetings 'inside the card' on the website. If you don't have email, please send your message to the Parish Office and we'll add it to the card, then print a copy of all the greetings on the Fourth Sunday of Advent.

Foodbank Reverse Advent Calendar – In the run-up to Christmas, the Foodbank is expecting a rise in demand. Would you be interested in joining their initiative, possibly as part of your Advent reflection? If you like, you could collect your items at home and, when you come into the church for private prayer, bring them along with you. Please don't feel an obligation to add an item every day, it's simply a guideline to the gifts the Foodbank would value.

1st - Box of cereal	13th - Bottle of bleach
2nd - Tin of soup	14th - Packet of rice
3rd - Jam	15th - Toilet roll
4th - Shampoo	16th - Shower gel
5th - Baby wipes	17th - Tinned tuna
6th - Tinned fruit	18th - Packet of biscuits

Sunday 29th November 2020

First Sunday of Advent

The church is open for Personal Prayer 11am-1pm and 4-5pm, Monday to Sunday

Holy Communion on Wednesday – Derwyn will be presiding at Holy Communion in church on Wednesday 2nd December, and the service will also be broadcast by Zoom for those unable to attend in person. Meeting ID 846 662 9590, Password 834900. You can also dial in by phone as per instructions on previous page.

Prayers for our Community, 9:30am, Saturday 28th November – We will meet via Zoom (Roger's Meeting ID: 458 034 0358, Password: 435609) this Saturday, for a half hour session of informal prayer. All welcome. Next Saturday, 5th December, we hope to meet in church once again.

Private Prayer additional times – Please note that we have extended our church opening times for individual prayer during this period of lockdown. The church will be open each day between 11am-1pm and 4-5pm. We are extremely grateful to all our steward volunteers for enabling these sessions. Please do publicise this amongst those you know: there must be many people who would value an opportunity to spend some comforting time in prayer, peace and reflection in these times. And in this time of Lockdown and during these shorter days our 4-5pm session might be an extra opportunity for our church's light to shine in the darkness. Please contact the Office if you're interested in stewarding for any prayer times.

A very different Company at Christmas 2020 – This year we are unable to host an event but there are ways you can help! Could you be a Christmas Day driver with goody bags / ready meals? Details are available on our website and if interested, please contact Jenny Klincke (833523) or Margaret Fox (658638). As well as considering whether you can volunteer, can you recommend to Jenny any potential new guests who should be contacted?

Salvation Army appeal – "We are striving to provide families who are finding things difficult, in Bishop's Stortford and across East Herts, with toys and food to enjoy on Christmas day." Brand new toys/board games/books/chocolate packs/wrapping paper and tape or cash or cheques (payable to 'Bishop's Stortford Salvation Army') may be taken to the Stortford Independent offices on North Street. 'The Entertainer' shop is open for 'Click and Collect' and is running its usual appeal where they will match any toys bought for The Salvation Army between 7th-28th November.
